

Half-life

Grendel

I've lost the pieces of my life.

I've strayed from my path.

Years I've paid for my mistakes.

I'm stuck to these tracks.

There was a time when I had it all.

Now I can only hope that you'll catch me when I fall.

Help me through this one more time. Save me.

Lead me through this one last time. Save me.

Please tell me do you call this life?

I do not. I'll be gone tomorrow.

Don't hate me. It hurts like a knife.

I understand. I do deserve my sorrow.

I waited way too long.

The flame has burned out.

Now there's nothing here for me.

I can't stay any longer. No.

I know you could make it all come back.

Please do it before I make my world turn black.
