

Power

Greta Isaac

You're so beautiful, so delicate, I feel sick
I will buy a golden frame and put you in it
People stop and look at you when we go outside
I feel so much better when I say that you're mine

You're a pretty little flower
I could pick you like a flower
I'm a sucker for the power

You're so sweet, so breakable, good God, I could cry
I will buy a fancy box and put you inside
They can call me crazy babe but you know the truth
Got you where I want if there's no us there's no you

I could love you like your momma
You don't even need your momma
No one hates you like a lover

You're a pretty little flower
I could pick you like a flower
I'm a sucker for the power
