

Hey Love

Gretchen Wilson

Hey love, what you doing here?
Hey love, tell me what you doing here?
I bet you're up to something
'Cause you've been avoiding me for years

Hey love, this must be some kind of joke
Hey love, this must be some kind of joke
The last time you built a fire
You let it all go up in smoke

I said, love you are a liar
'Cause you ain't gonna take me in
I know come tomorrow
You'll be gone again

Hey love, tell me what you doing here?
I know you're up to something
'Cause you've been avoiding me for years

Now, I probably wouldn't believe you
If you were anybody else
I know I can't trust you
And I sure can't trust myself

Hey love, tell me what you doing here?
I'll bet you're up to something
'Cause you've been avoiding me for years

If I go get a bible
And we swear on it and it's true
If you will
I'm gonna fall right back in love with you

Come on, love, tell me what you doing here?
I'll bet you're up to something
'Cause you've been avoiding me for years
Yeah, I know you're up to something
'Cause you've been avoiding me for years
Mmmm
