

Nobody Here

Gretta Ray

There's something you've got
Can't put my finger on it
What made me make you stay the night without you asking
That feeling you brought into the room
I wanted you all around me straight away, and didn't mask it

No doubt it frightened me when you verbalized it
Made me shut off then run far away
I didn't have the time of day
But here I am now out at this party and it's a shit show
Wish that I could call to tell you so

Nobody here could draw me in in an instant
Nobody here could leave me hanging on every word
Nobody here could make me want to know
All about them from head to toe
Nobody here with just one look could make me feel nervous
Everyone around is boring and all that it seems to prove
Is over again I think you're off my mind
A brief love I left behind
Then I find myself alone in a room
'Cause nobody here is you
Nobody here is you
(Nobody here)

Truth coming in hot
You damn well disappointed
Seeing somebody new
Suppose I had that coming

And I guess it is best that we're friends
'Cause lovers fuck with each other's heads
And I could use a break from that
Been through it and won't look back
But here I am now out at this party thinking about you
In a way I really didn't plan to

Nobody here could draw me in in an instant
Nobody here could leave me hanging on every word
Nobody here could make me want to know
All about them from head to toe
Nobody here with just one look could make me feel nervous
Everyone around is boring and all that it seems to prove
Is over again I think you're off my mind
Then I find myself alone in a room
'Cause nobody here is you
Nobody here is you
Nobody here is you
Nobody here is you

I'll see myself out
Take myself home now
Wonder whether you ever think about me
And if so, when and how

And if you were down, would you want to have me linger?
If not, I'll see myself out
Take myself home now
Wonder whether you ever think about me
And if so, when and how
And if you were down, would you want to have me linger?

Draw me in in an instant
Leave me hanging on every word
Make me want to know
All about you from head to toe
Nobody here with just one look could make me feel nervous
Everyone around is boring and all that it seems to prove
Is over again I think you're off my mind
A brief love I left behind
Then I find myself alone in a room
'Cause nobody here is you
