

Passion

Gretta Ray

I'm coming to learn of the risk
That comes with going head-first into love like this
Just look at me now
Caught up in the heat you emit as you walk in a room
You know that you do
I knew it from the minute that we met
You were a depiction of both a dream and a danger somehow
We never had doubts but we waited out
Giving in to the fire 'til it was down to the wire

It's all I ever have known
Wanting you bad to the bone
And by your love, I was thrown
Since the moment you got me alone
It set us in stone

I knew it from the night that we first loved
I had an addiction to all you were, and would for a while
Just give me a reason to feel obliged to pull you aside
Familiarise myself with you in private
You are, I am, we're victims of this feeling
Try to deny that rush that you get
Every time that I give you that touch

It's all you ever have known
Wanting me bad to the bone
And by my love, you were thrown
Since the moment I got you alone
It set us in stone
It's all I ever have known
Wanting you bad to the bone, bone, bone
And by your love, I was thrown
Since the moment you got me alone
It set us in stone

Passion has had me implanted
In a romantic, frantic stance and state of mind
Passion has had me enchanted
I couldn't take it for granted even if I tried

It's all I ever have known
Wanting you bad to the bone, bone, bone
And by your love, I was thrown
Since the moment you got me alone
It set us in stone
It's all I ever have known
Wanting you bad to the bone, bone, bone
And by your love I was thrown
Since the moment you got me alone
It set us in stone

You are, I am, we're victims of this feeling
