

God's Afraid

Grey Daze

Maybe someday I'll find my soul
Maybe sometimes I'm out of control
I lost my fears and all my dignity
Maybe God is just afraid of me, yeah

I gave up everything and now I'm alone
I should have listened to what you were told
Although everything I had is gone
I went insane from living too long

Now my feet are standing free
Facing days of unknown dreams
Children play the razor's blades
Cut thy throat life washed away

Why can't I
Why can't I fall
Why can't I fall

God's afraid of me, yeah
God's afraid of me, yeah

Why can't I
Why can't I fall
Why can't I fall
