

FAYF

Grey

I wake up, breakfast barista
She rolled up, thank you amiga
No make up, I can't believe you're mine
Nighttime comes, out with your friends
Have so much fun, I think they like me
Clock strikes one, think it's about that time

I've been waiting every day
Just to hold you against me and whisper these words
I've been waiting every day
Just to hold your face and whisper

Fuck you
And fuck all of your friends
The fuck they learn to smile like that?
I'm toxic, I'm toxic, I'm
Fuck you
And fuck your innocence
The fuck you learn to love like that?
I'm toxic, I'm toxic, I'm

It's not true love, you're doing okay
Just too much, like bad karaoke
No make up, no making up this time
 Fucked it up, full kamikaze
Said too much, sipping on sake
Clock strikes one, baby I lost my mind

I've been waiting every day
Just to hold you against me and whisper these words
I've been waiting every day
Just to hold your face and whisper

Fuck you
And fuck all of your friends
The fuck they learn to smile like that?
I'm toxic, I'm toxic, I'm
Fuck you
And fuck your innocence
The fuck you learn to love like that?
I'm toxic, I'm toxic, I'm
