

GOOD

Grey

You're lost in your phone, I'm finding myself
Asking how we wound up here
I see how you act in front of your friends
Might have yourself a good career

Do you even know this is how I been feelin' for weeks?
You think you're in control, you makin' this easy for me

You say you're gone, good
Say you don't want my love no more, good
I been on your shit for so long, good
I'ma go find somebody better, better, better
Than you ever could
You say you're gone, good
Say you don't want my love no more, good
I been on your shit for so long, good
I'ma go find somebody better, better, better
Than you ever could

Uh, look at me, look at me, look at me, look at me now (Uh)
I ain't felt this damn good in quite a while (Uh)
Some would say I'm movin' on can take a while
But it don't, no, it won't, oh-woah

Do you even know this is how I been feelin' for weeks?
You think you're in control, you makin' this easy for me

You say you're gone, good
Say you don't want my love no more, good
I been on your shit for so long, good
I'ma go find somebody better, better, better
Than you ever could
I'm alright, good
Thinkin' you got better days ahead, good
I been on your shit for so long, good
In a couple weeks, you'll wish you never left, good
I'ma go find somebody better, better, better
Than you ever could
