

Bodyhead

Greyhaven

They're singing "Bye", by and by, as I walk down the street
It's just like everyone around can see what I see in me
I've been spending my time just wishing you'd pull the plug
I feel like a machine
Been alone with myself, everything that I see is split
I'm in a war with myself and I'm losing it

They're singing "Bye", by and by, as I walk down the street
It's just like everyone around can see what I see in me
All you know is fucking live for show
I'm taking all control and swallowing you whole
It's all in my head
I don't feel a thing when I look at my body
I look down at my hands and they don't do what I want them to do
They don't take me where I need to go

We're singing "Bye", by and by, as you walk down the street
It's just like everyone around can see how selfish you can be
All you know is fucking live for show
I'm taking all control and swallowing you whole
I feel like another brick in the wall
I have nobody, I hate my body
