

Burn A Miracle

Greyhaven

Take me alive
Don't look inside
Take me alive
Do it!

Stepping stones of my teeth, yeah
Walk right out of this heat, yeah
Get in line and don't leave, yeah
Step inside my mind and take a picture of it

I can't let a thought arise
I'm waiting on the next attraction
It was never that far behind
A sudden apparition
Never was a friend of mine
Feeling like I'm self-destructive
Said it like a thousand times
But did anybody listen?

Take me to the ritual, bleeding out again
Singing while it leaves another hole in my head
I know just how it feels, I love the way it hurts
Take another miracle and let it burn

Feeling like an antique, yeah
I feel so loud I feel cheap, yeah
Feel left out I can't breathe, yeah
Take apart my mind and keep a picture of it

Keep a picture of it

I'm never at the starting line
Acting out of pure resentment
Feels like I'm burning alive
How does everybody like it?
I just want to make it clear
Trying not to get distracted
I don't want to disappear
Now that everybody's watching

Bleeding out again, I love the way it hurts

Take me to the ritual, bleeding out again
Singing while it leaves another hole in my head
I know just how it feels, I love the way it hurts
Take another miracle and let it burn

They look inside
They notice
I listen to them talk real sweet
But I feel like they should know better
They look inside
They notice
I hear them through the wall real sweet
But I feel like I should know better
I feel it...

I gave my life and shame, I gave them blood
Gave them all my love
I gave my life and shame, I gave them blood
Gave them all my love
