Greyhaven

I stopped going to church the day they stopped feeding me
I guess you could say I am the absolute American
We sell out our beliefs for the most secular of things
Like religion, your money is spreading disease
And we are all dying in the streets
Malnourished and underpaid, I'm a textbook suburban slave
I know it's hard to look my way; I'm a textbook suburban slave
Malnourished and underpaid, I'm a textbook suburban slave

I'm keeping my head above the water
But I am swallowing my pride
I pledge allegiance to the game
That I've been losing since day one

I know it's hard to look my way
I know it's hard 'cause I'm an ugly mother fucker

Malnourished and underpaid
I'm a textbook suburban slave
I know it's hard to look my way
I'm a textbook suburban slave
