

5,000 Miles

Grieves

I know I'm a complicated man in ways
I've been swimming far from shore
You kept falling for me through my darkest days
God bless that beautiful light that you forged
Life was cold and full of frozen-over lakes
You brought me closer to the flame
Now I close my eyes and all I see is your face

I'm like 5000 miles away
You're on my mind all day
I don't know what else to say

Oh I love you
I'd love you just to death
Oh I love you
I'd love you just to death
Oh I do, yes I love you

There's a comfort in the color of your eyes
I've spent hours getting lost
Life keeps spinning round in circles like a fly
But you keep me grounded no matter the cost
I can't sleep the same without you by my side
Nights are longer when you're gone
I don't feel like I'm at home without your smile

Oh there's 5000 miles of sky
I'd cross it all and die happy
If I could just say

Oh I love you
I'd love you just to death
Oh I love you
I'd love you just to death
Oh I do, yes I love you
