

About Love

Grieves

Yo

From the moment that I met you I could tell that I was over my head
Shit I could tell just from the way
You make them motions in bed
You ain't here to stick around long over the fence
You've been talkin' like it's all past tense
Girl, I think about it often
You and I we kinda got off on
The wrong foot that you chose to walk on
And you ain't ever really make it seem like you would stay
And I didn't really care cause I was feelin' out of place
Baby, that's all bad
Late night texts
Screen grabs
Slide through
Feeling like trash
I don't even know why I keep coming back
Tried to slow it down
Baby, all you did was laugh
That's all fine
I'm not walking that line
Done spending my dollars on a dime
I'm done talking about it
I'm over it, baby, it's time, ayy
Bye bye

It's kind of funny that you got me thinking this was bout love
You didn't even try
Baby, why would I
It's kind of funny that you had me thinking was bout us
Oh no

Late nights when I'm lonely I miss you
I wonder how long it's been since I been with you
I scroll through the texts and the pics that you sent through
The steam hits the mirror and I get sentimental
It's true
It's just something so sick that we do
Make a twisted mistake
Schedule dinner at eight
Show up two hours late
And I order a plate
Just to sit here in public and argue with you
And I wouldn't call this love, nah
But I wouldn't call it lust
Let's just call it what it was Falling just because
It was harder with nobody calling us
That just sucks
Rebound backboard fuck
Sneakin' out the backdoor stuck
Two of us trying to find happiness
But we just happen to be so disastrous, ooh
What a rush

It's kind of funny that you got me thinking this was bout love
You didn't even try

Baby, why would I
It's kind of funny that you had me thinking was bout us
Oh no

It's kind of funny that you got me thinking
You could be trusted

It kind of funny that you got me thinking this was bout
Honestly, anything other than yourself cause you are on some bullshit right now!...
