

Games

Grieves

You need to slow down
And access the, uh, uncrazy side of yourself

Yo, case studies show that you ain't shit
I'm laid up with a queen now, but you ain't it
I played the back-and-forth game with ya
Half-court switch
Me a baddie, now you actin' like you want this dick
You were oh so off it, you went full offense
When noticed that I didn't wanna keep on talkin' witchya
Now I'll admit there was a time when it was awesome
You let me crack it open from the tail like a crawfish
Crazy, you remember when you tried to taze me?
Climbed in through my window after pullin' out my AC
I used to wonder what was goin' through my head
And why I let a crazy person in my bed, but

Now I got this pretty grown thing at home
That you can't even hold a flame to, eh
I guess you caught me when I wasn't on my game
If you see me out in public, pull the reins

You always playing games
You always playing games
I hope you meet somebody that'll put you in your lane
Girl, I knew you'd never change
It's in your DNA
'Cause now you're on my phone
And you're talkin' all that same shit
You always playing games
You always playing games
I hope you meet somebody that'll put you in your lane
Girl, I knew you'd never change
It's in your DNA
'Cause now you're on my phone
And you're talkin' all the same shit, same shit

Uh, I been out here shinin'
So I can't take a rain check
I haven't got much fame yet
You call me up trippin' like
"Have you forgot my name yet?
I know you out there fuckin' on them groupies
Gettin' drunk and loopy
So this is how you do me?"

What you talkin' 'bout?
If anything, I'm cautious now
I think you really lost it now
Last time I seen you, you was walkin' out
When drive me crazy
Take the scenic route
I know you really hate it when you see me out
It seems like lately we just screamin' out
Turn around and call me "baby"
Damn! What we about?
We're always breakin' up

But now we're just broken
Busy playin' games, but I ran outta tokens
Drinkin' Hpnotiq, but we need hypnosis
Damn! You psychotic and you haven't had your dosage
Now we don't talk and my number's unlisted
Without your bullshit, I woulda never met Alyssa

You always playing games
You always playing games
I hope you meet somebody that'll put you in your lane
Girl, I knew you'd never change
It's in your DNA
'Cause now you're on my phone
And you're talkin' all that same shit
You always playing games
You always playing games
I hope you meet somebody that'll put you in your lane
Girl, I knew you'd never change
It's in your DNA
'Cause now you're on my phone
And you're talkin' all the same shit, same shit

I can't deny, at first I thought you was the one
But as soon as it begun, I looked around and I was stunned
Yeah, we had some fun but then our story took a turn
All my friends, they looked concerned like "John, when you gonna learn?
You'll end up gettin' burned like last time and the time before"
I started thinkin' of an answer, my reply was, "I don't know"
Guess I'm kinda slow, I didn't notice all the signs
I was glad to call her mine, but damn! That girl was out her mind
The truth I saw in time, why'd I get with you?
Ain't tryna play no more games, I got Red Dead 2
And now you're just cut loose, still callin', I'm like "Fuck that"
You saw me at the bar and said you bought my ass a gun-rack
Are you mental multiplied times a nympho?
See, crazy sex is cool, but this here, no, I'm not into It's simple, clear as day why it didn't last
And this shit is in the past 'cause

You always playing games
You always playing games
I hope you meet somebody that'll put you in your lane
Girl, I knew you'd never change
It's in your DNA
'Cause now you're on my phone
And you're talkin' all that same shit
You always playing games
You always playing games
I hope you meet somebody that'll put you in your lane
Girl, I knew you'd never change
It's in your DNA
'Cause now you're on my phone
And you're talkin' all the same shit, same shit
