

Pack It Up

Grieves

Ooo, I got the feeling you should be my baby,
Cause, ooo, your hard to find, so hard to find,
Ooo, I got the feeling you should be my baby,
So you should pack it up and come be mine.

I guess its funny when I saw you from across the room,
And I ain't tryin to creep you out but I can feel you move,
Every flutter, every sip, every little groove,
It's got me thinking I could probably fall in love with you,
But how the hell do I approach such a precious dream,
Tongues tied and I ain't even said a single thing,
You got me feeling like I'm choking on a wedding ring and I ain't even made an introduction yet or anything,
Yeah, I guess I got a little hiccup,
I never learned or mastered the artistry of the pickup,
I never tried to get up, face it, go,
Some of us gotta but a lot of us don't,
I'm a nervous little wreck of the soul sometimes I don't even know how I can make it home,
I just wish I had the guts to approach or tap you on the shoulder,
And keep a little smile for my own, I wanna let you know

Ooo, I got the feeling you should be my baby,
Cause, ooo, your hard to find, so hard to find,
Ooo, I got the feeling you should be my baby,
So you should pack it up and come be mine.

Yo, I got a feeling you and I can make a perfect couple,
Cause I'm a pretty decent listener and love to cuddle,
I would never start an arguement or cause you trouble,
Cause I don't even know your name,
But still I think I love you, and I can feel it in my gut,
Just never had the nerves to tap and come to say whatsup,
I don't even know the words that I would use to be a stud enough to get across the things I'm thinking of,
But mainly, cause I'm terrified, and I don't wanna be a laughing stock,
I have your point in making faces as I stagger off.
I know its harsh, but baby your a star, and I can see you shining from afar,
And that's the way I like it,
Looking through the bottom of my glass hoping you would turn around and give an honest due to pass,
I been thinking of any opportunity I could grab,
Just to see if I could make you laugh,
I wanna let you know,

Ooo, I got the feeling you should be my baby,
Cause, ooo, your hard to find, so hard to find,
Ooo, I got the feeling you should be my baby,
So you should pack it up and come be mine.
Ehhhhh, ehhhhh, ehhhhh, ehhhhh, ehhhhh, ehhhhh

Ooo, I got the feeling you should be my baby,
Cause, ooo, your hard to find, so hard to find,
Ooo, I got the feeling you should be my baby,
So you should pack it up and come be mine,
Ehhhh.
