

I tried leaving every single feeling at the door
Tried to shut it so tight, left the keys out on the floor
And I'll be honest, I'll be honest
And it would be much easier if there could be a way
If you could set me free to find love in another place
I'll be honest, I'll be honest

It's an endless cycle
Turns me upside down
Always right behind me
And I don't know how to shut you out
It's a chain reaction
Heart is beating loud
No matter where I go
You're always there somehow

It's an endless cycle

Even though your body isn't right here in this room, I still Feel your presence like the scent of a perfume
I'll be honest, I'll be honest
It's almost like your shadow that just follows everywhere
And if the, the walls could talk they'd make it sound like you were t here
I'll be honest, I'll be honest

It's an endless cycle
Turns me upside down
Always right behind me
And I don't know how to shut you out
It's a chain reaction
Heart is beating loud
No matter where I go
You're always there somehow

It's an endless cycle

It's an endless cycle
It's an endless cycle
No matter where I go

It's an endless cycle
Turns me upside down
Always right behind me
And I don't know how to shut you out
It's a chain reaction
Heart is beating loud
No matter where I go
You're always there somehow
