

Didn't Break It Enough

Griff

(You didn't break it enough)
(You didn't break it enough)

You could've had the decency
To do the job properly
'Cause now, you're on my mind, more than I care to admit
(You didn't break it enough)
And now, I don't have the luxury
Of cutting you off, going cold turkey
And now, I'm joining up the dots
But they don't fit at all 'cause
(You didn't break it enough)

If my heart is broken
Why can it still love you?
Why can it still want you?
Why does it still, love you?
If it's broken
Why the hell does it want you still?
When you broke it, you
You didn't break it enough

In love, in love
You still, you didn't break it enough
You, you didn't break it enough

They ask me how I'm doing and
I curse your name, say I'm better without you
And then I realize, that's not really what they asked
(You didn't break it enough)
But either way, I'm passionate
I hate you 'cause I hate the fact
That I still miss you after all of that
(You didn't break it enough)
So tell me

If my heart is broken (Uh-huh)
Why can it still love you? (Mhm)
Why can it still want you?
Why does it still, love you?
If it's broken
Why the hell does it want you still?
When you broke it, you
You didn't break it enough

In love, in love (Uh-huh)
You still, you didn't break it enough (No-oh)
You, you didn't break it enough
In love, in love
You still, you didn't break it enough
You, you didn't break it enough

So, If my heart is broken
Why can it still love you?
Why does it still want you?
Why does it still, love you?
If it's broken (No-oh-oh-oh)

Why the hell does it want you still? (Hey-ah-hey)
When you broke it, you (Break)
You didn't break it enough (Break it enough)

In love, in love (Uh-huh)
You still, you didn't break it enough (No-oh)
You, you didn't break it enough
In love, in love (Oh-oh)
You still, you didn't break it enough (No-oh)
You, you didn't break it enough
