

Forgive Myself

Griff

(I gave my heart to the wrong somebody else)
(I gave my heart-, I gave my heart-)

I'm a little exhausted (Somebody else)
I been torturing myself everyday
Over every single mistake I've made
But I just can't help it (Somebody else)
I find myself doing it anyway
'Cause I let them in, so surely I'm to blame

And I know, I know, it ain't right
And something's gotta change, yeah
Yeah, I know it's probably time that I just face that

I gave my heart to the wrong somebody else
And I need to forgive myself, oh
I gave my heart to the wrong somebody else
And I need to forgive myself

Oh, yeah, it's gonna be hard, trusting my feelings again
'Cause what if they mess up again?
Yeah, I'll beat myself up, times ten
I shouldn't, I know that
But when, I gave my heart to the wrong somebody else
I never forgave myself

And it's really exhausting (Somebody else)
When they say that they don't have any regrets
'Cause I got a million weighing my chest
And, that's a lot of forgiveness (Somebody else)
That I just ain't got around to yet
Giving myself any of that? No

Yeah, I know, I know, it ain't right
And something's gotta change yeah
Yeah, I know it's probably time that I just face that

I gave my heart to the wrong somebody else
And I need to forgive myself, oh
I gave my heart to the wrong somebody else
And I need to forgive myself

Oh, yeah, it's gonna be hard, trusting my feelings again (Yeah)
'Cause what if they mess up again?
Yeah, I'll beat myself up, times ten
I shouldn't, I know that
But when, I gave my heart to the wrong somebody else
I never forgave myself

(Need to forgive myself) I know that I need to, yeah
I know that I need to forgive myself
Ooh, oh

Oh, yeah, it's gonna be hard, trusting my feelings again
'Cause what if they mess up again?
Yeah, I'll beat myself up, times ten
I shouldn't, I know that

But when, I gave my heart to the wrong somebody else
I never forgave myself
