

Hiding Alone

Griff

I'm like a house
Where the windows and the curtains don't close
So every sound
Is wearing down a weight in my soul
I wish we could talk now
I'll tell you how I'm hurting again
And you'd kiss it better and put me back together again

Oh, 'cause you had a way of making everything disappear
So not even the wind or the rain
Can reach us when we're hiding out here, here, here
Yeah, you had a way
Of letting me let everything go
So nothing from the outside could come in
And reach us when we're hiding alone, alone, alone

Come back now, won't you
Tell me that you're not far from home
I'll make you up a bed in the front room
We can watch whatever you want
Or we could just talk and
I'll probably tell you how I'm hurting again
And you kiss it better and put me back together again

Oh, 'cause you had a way of making everything disappear
So not even the wind or the rain
Can reach us when we're hiding out here, here, here
Yeah, you had a way
Of letting me let everything go
So nothing from the outside could come in
And reach us when we're hiding alone alone alone

These days I feel like I don't know how to Do just the simplest of things like
Nobody else had the same superpower you had to make me feel something
Maybe it didn't ever matter
'Cause the world could be turning upside down
Space and time didn't exist somehow

Oh, 'cause you had a way of making everything disappear
So not even the wind or the rain
Can reach us when we're hiding out here, here, here
Yeah, you had a way
Of letting me let everything go
So nothing from the outside could come in
And reach us when we're hiding alone, alone, alone