

Lay Down In Your Fields

Griffin House

Well you ran
You never wanted to stay
Go ahead
Let him pull you away
What you've built
You should never tear down
Don't give up
When they need you around

Lay down in your fields
Time knows what it steals
When you laughed
You broke all of my dreams
I will return to you
Return to me

And don't you forget
How it feels to be down
It's when you fall
You're gonna need us around

Lay down in your fields
Time knows what it steals
Wide is the road
That leads to a dead end street
I pray your heart can lead your feet
Back to the path
It leads you to love

Lay down in your fields
Time knows what it steals

Can you hear your daughter crying your name all alone when she sleeps
She's been used and abused and confused
By the doubt that she keeps
Now her brother is using this song to go on his knees
He's begging you please, begging you please

Lay down in your fields
I will always forgive you no matter what you may do
After all I'm still me and you are still you
I don't know what to say, how to feel, what to do
May I heal you

Ah la la la

Lay down in your fields
Time knows what it steals
Lay down in your fields
