

She Likes Girls

Griffin House

I got a girlfriend and she does too
I think it's fair to say that maybe
We're both just a little confused

I was at the dance hall
When she caught my eyes
I ask around about her
Everybody says she doesn't like guys

No, she likes girls
She likes girls
She likes girls
And that's alright

Well, my best friend said
"You better get her out of your mind"
And so I volunteer
To try to swing into the other side

And she will smile
And I feel like
A king of the world
It doesn't bother me at all

That she likes girls
She likes girls
She likes girls
That's alright

I wouldn't change a thing about her
She make me feel so free
I wouldn't change a thing about her
She's so good, she's so good, now
She's so good, she's so good to me

So if you gonna talk to her
And here's a little pickup line
I hear you like pretty women, it's funny
Honey, so do I

So if you want a girlfriend
I can understand
But if you want a boyfriend
Honey, I'm your man
Man, man, mad, mad man

She likes girls
She likes girls
She likes girls
And that's alright

She likes girls
She likes girls
She likes girls
And honey, so do I
