

The Right to Bear Harm

GrimSkunk

Orlando pulse, Virginia tech, weapons in the hands of psychos
Columbine, Sandy hook, no gun control, repeat the cycle
Save your f*cking hollow prayers
You don't really f*cking care
When our kids get blown away
You can thank the NRA
Do us all a favour, clown
Turn the gun around
And shoot yourself now
Why don't you shoot yourself now
Why don't you shoot yourself!
When you point the gun at me
It's your own insanity
Breaking with reality
Wrecking our Humanity
Big man, big dick
Walking with your killing stick
Making the apology
For another senseless tragedy
The Innocent who lose their lives
Who's looking out for their rights?
Stand still as children die
And still you justify
So Save your hollow prayers

Deep down, You don't really care
Save your f*cking hollow prayers
You don't really f*cking care
You know it deep down
The time is right now
We see it everyday
But you look the other way
Hold your guns up high
As we bury another child
Weapons built for mass murdering
Breed too much fear and suffering
You have no right to bear harm
But you have the choice to unarm
Sparked by anger or by crime
Death and chaos we will find
When your kids get blown away
You can thank the NRA
It's just a matter of time
Till someone loses their mind
Goes desperado & blind
And we're in the firing line
Why don't you shoot yourself now
Why don't you shoot yourself!
