

Full Moon

Grinspoon

Do you want to Leave here
And go far away?

Hear the echo
From the valley
Calling our names

There's nothing that you can say
That will change what happened
You can't make it go away
No, it won't change nothin'

This is the full moon
It's time to start new
Let's try and forget
And have no regrets

Is there answers
In the questions
That I'll be leaving town today?
On the back streets
Down the alley
Where we made our first mistake

There's nothing that you can say
That will change what happened
You can't make it go away
No, it won't change nothin'

This is the full moon
It's time to start new
Let's try and forget
And have no regrets

This is the full moon
It's time to start new
Let's try and forget
And have no regrets

Do you want to Leave here
And go far away?

This is the full moon
It's time to start new
Let's try and forget
And have no regrets

This is the full moon
It's time to start new
Let's try and forget
And have no regrets
