

Black Magic

Grizfolk

Love can't be tamed
Can't be restrained
Some will never know
Some will never know
If it's true pain
Can't feel the same
Never let you go
Never let you go

These feelings that I have
Are these feelings that I can't seem to contain, contain
These feelings that I have
Are these feelings that I can't seem to contain, contain

Tell me is it too soon,
A blood moon, a bad habit?
Tell me what would you do,
Is it voodoo or black magic?

Did it go south?
Can we work it out?
Keep it interesting
Keep it interesting
And the word of mouth
Is that you're getting out
You're a mystery
You're a mystery

These feelings that I have
Are these feelings that I can't seem to contain, contain
These feelings that I have
Are these feelings that I can't seem to contain, contain

Tell me is it too soon,
A blood moon, a bad habit?
Tell me what would you do,
Is it voodoo or black magic?

Tell me is it too soon,
A blood moon, a bad habit?
Tell me what would you do,
Is it voodoo or black magic?
Tell me is it too soon,
A blood moon, a bad habit?
Tell me what would you do,
Is it voodoo or black magic?
