

Gold

Grizfolk

She doesn't look back and she doesn't think twice
She don't believe in Jesus Christ
Her religion is her holy pride
She'll break my heart and then she'll break it again
If I was smart I'd listen to my friends
She'll play the part but she won't pretend

She's gold, she's gold, she's gold
She's gold, she's gold, she's gold

I'm losing faith and I'm losing sleep
She's a dream that I just can't keep Counterfeit heart, talk is cheap
She'll break my heart and then she'll break it again
If I was smart I'd listen to my friends
She'll play the part but she won't pretend

She's gold, she's gold, she's gold
She's gold, she's gold, she's gold

She's gold, she's gold, she's gold
She's gold, she's gold, she's gold

She's gold
She's gold
She's gold
She's gold

She's gold, she's gold, she's gold
She's gold, she's gold, she's gold

She's gold, she's gold, she's gold
She's gold, she's gold, she's gold
