

Standing over our love
Is it too late to say sorry
I tried to save my myself
I didn't mean to hurt nobody
I'm asking for forgiveness
I'm doing all I can
But you can't change what you don't understand

If I feel you here when I'm alone
Are we ever really gone?
Something more than skin and bones
Are we ever really gone?

Standing on the edge
Just before we lost it
Standing by my word
No matter what the cost is
A California king building castles in the sand
Tried to change what I don't understand

If I feel you here when I'm alone
Are we ever really gone?
Something more than skin and bones
Are we ever really gone?
