

Heavy Crown

Grizfolk

What kind of river we riding on?
What kind of ride do we roll?
Which way do we go when the bridge is gone?
Who's behind the lies we've been told?

I'll be the light in a cold, cold, cold world
I'll be the light in a cold, cold, cold world
I'll be the light in a cold, cold, cold world
I'll be the light in a cold, cold, cold world

Wake me up when it's going down
Let the voice in your heart make a louder sound
Wake me up when it's going down
Whose head is holding this heavy crown?

Where do we go when the road runs out
Love will rise up indeed
Done whispering and thinking loud
Done blowing with the breeze

I'll be the light in a cold, cold, cold world
I'll be the light in a cold, cold, cold world
I'll be the light in a cold, cold, cold world
I'll be the light in a cold, cold, cold world

Wake me up when it's going down
Let the voice in your heart make a louder sound
Wake me up when it's going down
Whose head is holding this heavy crown?

Whose head is holding this heavy crown?
Whose head is holding this heavy crown?
Whose head is holding this heavy crown?
Whose head is holding this heavy crown?
