

A New Star

Groundation

Behold the night sky brings us a new star today
Catch it before it passes away
For all those thought wise become fools today
Rally round the table so I man can pray

Oh myself at peace, my heart, and soul, and livity
Only to reveal finally the source of Dreams of war, dreams of war, dreams of war
I know Jah, oh Lord they thought I warrior
Look how they thought I warrior
Oh de man thought I warrior
Oh Iyah say

Oh de man don't blame the Ites, on what do these eyes can't see
Don't blame the people who gather themselves on the shore
Seeking something more

To hang on their lives unto
If they can see the light why can't you see
The truth is not what it may seem to be
While all of them a holler at we

For so long, oh so long
We've been here so very long, oh so long
Oh long, oh long, oh long, oh-wo

Oh light of creation shine down inna this time
Only to find man who fight against man
With their holy words and him holy thoughts and a
Dem a stumble pon a dis a war to come well now

Don't blame the Ites, on what do these eyes can't see
Oh don't blame the children who gather themselves on the shore
Seeking something more

Oh light of creation shine down inna this time
Only to find man who fight against man
With their holy words and him holy thoughts and a
Dem will stumble pon a dis a war to come well now

Don't blame the Ites, on what do these eyes can't see
Oh don't blame the people who gather themselves on the shore
Seeking something: man don't stamp pon the elders
For what is the truth I cannot see: don't blame the children
Who gather themselves by the shore seeking something more

Don't blame the Ites, on what do these eyes can't see
Man don't blame the children
