

Anew

Groundation

As a new sun dawns its light
Through my window view
Returning to life
Anew!

Could there be any other one? No, no no
Who carry I away, way, way, way
Jah alone role set it aflame
On life's road we all remain
Like a candle has to end

What was sweet like honey yeah
Will one day burn itself down
A new morning yeah!
Reawaken with a glorious sound

The energy that brings forth life
It echoes through you
Returning your soul, anew!

Though you may wish upon a star
Dreaming of another way
Rocket ship role far away
And solar wars calling them
Every candle have to end

What was sweet like honey yeah
Will one day burn itself down
A new morning yeah!
Reawaken with a glorious sound, sound
