

Coolin' I

Groundation

Like a sling-shot in the ghettos
Man rain fall free
Like a wind so sharp, so sounding lovely
Your voice is to me, ha
But you want them, ya want dem soul, ah young girl
Ya coolin' I, coolin' I heart
Girl, you're coolin' I, you're coolin' I heart
Young girl you're coolin' I, coolin' I heart
Yeah your coolin' I, coolin' I heart

Back down Orange Street
That's where all the boys them used to meet Simmer down! So, so, so slow
Gonna make reggae music
Gonna make reggae music explode, somebody say
Look like ya come up for some dreadlock soul
Look like ya want to hold me, but ya na leggo
And if ya sulk ya sulk and bark ya bark
But in the night time you stay sweat and lovely girl, but haha oh Lord young girl
Ya coolin' I, coolin' I heart
Girl, you're coolin' I, you're coolin' I heart Looks like to me you're coolin' I, you're coolin' I heart girl you're coolin' I, you're coolin' I heart

Back up ya street and block off the road Along old Sampson Street holding your heart so steady, so ready, so d ready, so ready, so dready so
Look like you want ta, want ta, want ta meet a dutty soul, but Jah

Young girl
Man ya coolin' I, coolin' I heart
Girl, you're coolin' I, you're coolin' I heart
Why must you go so coolin' I, you're coolin' I heart girl you're cool in' I, you're coolin' I heart

These tears I cry they're for me
These tears I cry are for me now
Shine like a rainbow when the sun come around
Point at an eagle in the painting when they come to seek our moral, o

Young girl
Ya coolin' I, coolin' I heart
You're coolin' I, coolin' I heart
Why must you coolin' I, coolin' I heart
Young girl coolin' I, you're coolin' I heart

You're coolin' I, coolin' I heart
You're coolin' I, coolin' I heart
You're coolin' I, coolin' I heart
You're coolin' I, coolin' I heart

So sounds so dread so...
You're coolin' I
