

Cupid's Arrow

Groundation

Man cross the line you, you set it already
Man cross the line, you set it again
But we, we long to be
Underneath your spell again

Hold me, through the night
Whisper, truth and rights
Oh, catch me, for I've fallen
Down in love tonight

You shine like a gem, before time ever began
Hidden from the prophet, women strengthen man
So me? I long to see
Those bright and shinning eyes a light

Respect me, do the right
Stay with me, through the night
Oh, love me, absolutely
And you and I shall prosper

Things cannot be seen with eyes, you must already know
All will be revealed in time, a so the scripture go
Still this shall be a case of destiny
Called Cupid's arrow

Only me, through the night
Darling, keep the fight
So I wish the, only goodness
Until we meet, in heaven

Man hold the line, rock in time
Man hold the line, rock in time
So me, I still dream
Of your welcoming arms again

Runaway, form liberties
Spend you day, in harmony
Oh, this oneness, is killing me
You must surely, know

Caught inside the vibe, man could never design
Underneath that pressure, life is getting better
So me? I remain faithfully
Like a shining star in heaven
