

Deaf Ears

Groundation

To all those weeping pirates
Oh your word shall fall on deaf ears now
For we hear Mount Zion calling
The man higher to the world
Chanting words they spoken softly
Of them dragon which conquers my soul
Uh-oh conquers my soul

To all those weeping pirates
Know your word shall fall on deaf ears now
For we hear Mount Zion calling
The man higher to the world
Chanting words they spoken softly
Of them dragon which conquers my soul

To all those weeping pirates
Know your words shall fall on deaf ears now
