

Liberation Call

Groundation

I hope you are, feeling a little better
They say you were lost, for one thousand years
All I need (all I need)
Can I remember (can I remember)
With all I know, and claim to be? Huh!

The I, the idol, and the Ital rest
The I, the idle, but ya can't confess
You're high, ya idle, and ya out of breath
The I, the idol, but ya can't confess

Don't wait to long or it is never gonna come to the
Jah knows, man, it's a liberation calling them
Don't wait to long or it never gonna come to the
Jah knows, still it's a liberation calling them

'Pon the beat 'pon the beat, what man say
'Pon the riddim 'pon the riddim, all man go
'Pon the beat 'pon the beat, what man say
'Pon the riddim 'pon the riddim, all man go

All my needs can't wait too long
All my thought Jah alone
Feel my cup with water
You know I will carry this heavy load

Until them walls one day crumble
Queen of the spiritual life
While men cheat, beg, steal, and grumble
Where are the people's rights?

Don't wait to long or it is never gonna come to the
Jah knows, man, it's a liberation calling them
Don't wait to long or it never gonna come to the
Jah knows, still it's a liberation calling them

'Pon the beat 'pon the beat, what man say
'Pon the riddim 'pon the riddim, all man go
'Pon the beat 'pon the beat, what man say
'Pon the riddim 'pon the riddim, all man go
