

Trust Yourself

Groundation

Calm yourself and find your voice
Than make your step and prove yourself
It's the only choice

Is this real, you ask of me
Well yes it is so enjoy your years plenty
You won't get many, Jah know!
So start it right now tomorrow might
Not come around, Jah know!

In life it's only memories
That form our reality onyah

Stand on your feet
You? You're not done yet
You were licked by the flames of love
And it brought you here

Was it a fantasy in your head
Crushed by the loss, you are dreaming again
Yes you're dreaming again about you!
Nothing to hold on, nothing just leave me alone!
Jah know, Jah know, Jah know

What seems like a mystery
Still we're blessed by their company onya

Trust yourself
You can stand alone
As the flames come and surround you all slowly go

Well you risked it all he said
With his golden harp, playing him a melody
You can't understand it, I know!
Gifted with a soul that's painted by the fear, I know!
Don't doubt yourself now

You can take all the mysteries as lasting memories forever!
