Waterfall

Groundation

Playing in Jah's waterfall, I don't care who call no
I'll never be one of dem who
Come and try to mix it up, mix it up
So them stand ans say, "we must protect our world today"
While all of ya see the whole of Africa
And watch it turn into a desert

There was a gifted man, who never knew how to plan
For the future of all creation
So He became a soldier man, who shot I for no reason
Dropped bombs in a foreign land
Here on Earth they've wasted away their lives
Pitting I and I against one another

Well, it seems they will answer
To our son and daughter in this time
But for now they say, oh god, "Go away children, go away
Children, children go away!"

Playing in Jah's waterfall, one day it cease to fall
We've cut down all the trees
And watched the animals die from diseases
I dropped down on my knees and pray oh my Father, take I
Won't you save us as you saved Noah, Ham, Shem and Japhet?

Playing in Dunn's river fall, I don't care who call me no
For some of dem see the world, and try to escape it
Turning their back pon the land, and
Watching the mountain turn into sand
But as long as my heart beats on
I will fight to rebuild mount Zion

There was a holy land, far beyond the ocean yeah
Holding the future of all creation
Only to vanish in a vision, that
Speaks of generation, destroying their homeland
I am crying on behalf of our children
The day must come when we will learn to live together

Playing in Jah's waterfall... That's all I want
