

Weeping Pirates

Groundation

To all those weeping pirates
Oh, your words shall fall
On deaf ears now
For we hear Mount Zion calling
The man higher to the world
Chanting words they spoken softly
Of them dragon which conquers my soul

True word, true word
True word, true word

All those weeping pirates
Know your words shall fall
On deaf ears now
For we hear Mount Zion calling
The man higher to the world
Chanting words they spoken softly
Of them dragon that conquers my soul

To all those weeping pirates
Know your words shall fall
On deaf ears now
For we hear Mount Zion calling
The man higher to the world
Chanting words they spoken softly
Of them dragon that conquers my soul
