Steppin Out

I feel called to something more
Beyond what I have known
I keep shutting out that voice
That cries deep within my soul

I have more to give
But I have been afraid
And then I hear You say
"It's still not too late"

I'm stepping out to take a chance
And if I fly or if I fall, it's in Your hands
You're the maker of my dreams
And You'll make a way with me
So I'm stepping out, I'm stepping out

To take a chance
(Whoa, oh, oh, oh, ooh)
To take a chance
(Whoa, oh, oh, oh, ooh)

I'm alive, I want to live
And I am not content to keep holding Back all that I am, the way that I have been
I am Yours to use

And when I am afraid
You come close to say
"One step is all it takes"

I'm stepping out to take a chance
And if I fly or if I fall, it's in Your hands
You're the maker of my dreams
(Maker of my dreams)
And You'll make a way with me
So I'm stepping out, I'm stepping out

I believe in the grace You've shown me
I believe in the words You say
I believe there's an untold story
That You're telling through me

I believe in the grace You've shown me
I believe in the words You say
I believe there's an untold story
That You're telling through me

I'm stepping out to take a chance
And if I fly or if I fall, it's in Your hands
You're the maker of my dreams
And You'll make a way with me
So I'm stepping out, I'm stepping out

To take a chance

(Whoa, oh, oh, oh, ooh)

To take a chance

(Whoa, oh, oh, oh, ooh)

I'm stepping out, I'm stepping out, Lord

I'm stepping out, I'm stepping out
