

Heavy Water/I'd Rather Be Sleeping

Grouper

This feeling doesn't go away
I feel it moving through me
I want the love
I fought to say
Want to feel it moving through me

On dreams
I'm moving through heavy water
The love is enormous, is lifting me up
I'd rather be sleeping
I'd rather fall into tidal waves
Right where the deepest currents fall

I opened a mirror up
And saw a true love
I thought
It could manage me softly
The water rising up over my head

On dreams
I'm moving through heavy water
The love is enormous, is lifting me up
I'd rather be sleeping
I'd rather fall into tidal waves
Right where the deepest currents fall

On dreams
I'm moving through heavy water
The love is enormous, is lifting me up
I'd rather be sleeping
I'd rather fall into tidal waves
Right where the deepest currents fall
