Dim the lights, dim the lights, dim the lights, low.
You can come and join me, sit around the piano.
You can light the fire, open up the window,
You can make a choice by seeing where the wind blows,
You can watch me sleeping and I can watch you dreaming,
You can change the channel and I can change the feeling.

Call my name, call my name, call my name out
You can find the key and I can find the way out
Honestly, tell me, tell me what you like
I can sit awake from midnight to daylight
You can watch me sleeping and I can watch you dreaming
You can change the channel and I can change the feeling.

Chloe, I don't need a reason
Well, I'm bound by the sweet condition.
Chloe, we don't need permission,
We can go where we wanna go,
Say what we wanna say, and
Do what we wanna do.

Dim the lights, dim the lights, dim the lights, low.
You can come and join me, sit around the piano.
You can light the fire, open up the window,
You can make a choice by seeing where the wind blows,
You can watch me sleeping and I can watch you dreaming,
You can change the channel and I can change the feeling.

Chloe, I don't need a reason
Well, I'm bound by the sweet condition.
Chloe, we don't need permission,
We can go where we wanna go,
Say what we wanna say, and
Do what we wanna do.

You can find me in a web outside,
I'm waiting here to be untied,
We can fly through the sky tonight,
You can have everything,
Let me say one more time:

Chloe, I don't need a reason
Well, I'm bound by the sweet condition.
Chloe, we don't need permission,
We can go where we wanna go,
Say what we wanna say, and
Do what we wanna do.

We can go where we wanna go,
Say what we wanna say, and
Do what we wanna do.
