

Hello

Grouplove

So you're out, on your own
And nobody's talkin' to you on the phone
Yeah, nobody's talkin' to you
So you go, yeah, just to get into view
Yeah, what are you gonna

Yeah, you're constantly numb 'cause nobody sees you through
So you run, and it's not enough for you
Carry on, there's only one life to lose
So what are you gonna

Hey, hello, I need to see a smile
Help, I'm alone, can I buy some time?
And nobody's talkin'

When will you ever find yourself?
Inside, you feel like someone else
When will you ever find yourself?
Yeah, only in the morning when I have my cup of coffee

So you're out, on your own
And someone starts talking to you
Here you go, yeah, someone is talking to you
And you know, you've finally come into view
So what are you gonna

Hey, hello, I need to see a smile
Help, I'm alone, can I buy some time?
And nobody's talkin'

When will you ever find yourself?
Inside, you feel like someone else
When will you ever find yourself?
Yeah, only in the morning when I have my cup of coffee

Yeah, what are you gonna do? (Hey, hello)
Yeah, what are you gonna do? (Hey, hello)
Yeah, what are you gonna do? (Hey, hello)
