

Break

Gruntruck

Lines across the face, she says they're a river flow
Got a little place, yeah, where we can go
Build yourself a fort, line the walls with home
Please don't use that rope, I'm gonna sing you down
I'm gonna sing you down

So don't break
Yeah, leave it alone
Break
So don't break
Yeah, burn all the clothes

Says she needs me there, yeah, she feels strong
And still sometimes the snake will try to wrap around
When all you want is it, but it is dead and gone
Lines across the face, they break to just sit down
I'm gonna sing you down

So don't break
Yeah, leave it alone
Break
So don't break
Yeah, burn all the clothes

Yeah, the lines are cracks in your face
Yeah, the lines, they're cracks in your face
You've got cracks in your face
You've got cracks in your face
You're exposed, you're exposed
Yeah, you're exposed, yeah, you're exposed

Lines across the face, she says they're a river flow
Got a little place, yeah, where we can go
Build yourself a fort, line the walls with home
Please don't use that rope, I'm gonna sing you down
I'm gonna sing you down

So don't break
Yeah, leave it alone
Break
So don't break
Yeah, burn all the clothes
Break

So don't break
Yeah, leave it alone
So don't break
Yeah, burn all the clothes
