

SONAR HEART

Gryffin

I'm not gonna change who I am
'Cause the world let me down, spit me out once again
I'm not gon' be bitter and hard
I'm astray, but I ain't lost

And it left me blind, but I hear the lies
Drownin' out the words just to lift the curse
If my guard is right, I can trust the signs
'Cause I'm astray, but I ain't lost

When it echoes, I'm not afraid to run in the dark
'Cause you let go and I had to fill this hole in our heart
Hear it echo, I close my eyes and know where we are
In the dark, my sonar heart
When it echoes, I'm not afraid to run in the dark
'Cause you let go and I had to fill this hole in our heart
Hear it echo, I close my eyes and know where we are
In the dark, my sonar heart

When it echoes, I'm not afraid to run in the dark
'Cause you let go and I had to fill this hole in our heart
Hear it echo, I close my eyes and know where we are
In the dark, my sonar heart
When it echoes, I'm not afraid to run in the dark
'Cause you let go and I had to fill this hole in our heart
Hear it echo, I close my eyes and know where we are
In the dark, my sonar heart

I'm not gonna beg for relief
From a god that's a thief and it's [?] for me
I'm not gonna censor my thoughts
I'm astray, but I ain't lost

And it left me blind, but I hear the lies
Drownin' out the words just to lift the curse
If my guard is right, I can trust the signs
'Cause I'm astray, but I ain't lost

When it echoes, I'm not afraid to run in the dark
'Cause you let go and I had to fill this hole in our heart
Hear it echo, I close my eyes and know where we are
In the dark, my sonar heart
When it echoes, I'm not afraid to run in the dark
'Cause you let go and I had to fill this hole in our heart
Hear it echo, I close my eyes and know where we are
In the dark, my sonar heart

My sonar heart
My sonar heart
When it echoes, I'm not afraid to run in the dark
'Cause you let go and I had to fill this hole in our heart
Hear it echo, I close my eyes and know where we are
In the dark, my sonar heart

My sonar heart
My sonar heart
When it echoes, I'm not afraid to run in the dark

'Cause you let go and I had to fill this hole in our heart
Hear it echo, I close my eyes and know where we are
In the dark, my sonar heart
When it echoes, I'm not afraid to run in the dark
'Cause you let go and I had to fill this hole in our heart
Hear it echo, I close my eyes and know where we are
In the dark, my sonar heart
