

Save Me

GS Megaphone

Welcome to my mind. Excuse the mess I've made inside.
I picked it up along the way. It's way too much to try to hide

Without you, I'm dirty. I'm sick and so unworthy.
Renew me and free me. Help me to fly.

You have opened up my soul,
And everything inside is screaming.
I am falling on my knees. I'm crying out for you to save me.

I'm getting up and falling down.
I spend my time face to the ground.
Everyday it's just the same - betraying you without a sound.
