

Venom

GS Megaphone

You hurt me oh so deeply, I could not even cry,
Your poison was effective I must admit.
I was afraid to love, I was afraid to hate
I was afraid to fail, I was afraid to win.

Hey, honestly, do you think,
That you're the only snake with Venom.

I'll not pretend to be the, the one that you should fear.
I don't keep my weakness from out of view.
Jesus is my protector, my healer and my God,
So now you know there's someone after you.
