

Another Day

GSoul

Easy to forget now but somehow
Did you wander off into the blue
Oh, it's real
So real
But who am I to say that it's not real
I traveled all around to find a way
Used to think I'd break under the pressure

All it made me feel
Makes me kneel
Get down on these knees and start to pray

How could you forgive all my addictions
Then you love me like your child when I'm alone
It's been so hard to fight
When these bottles called my name
Easy to forget
But when I do

Sometimes
When no one is around me
Sober days
Just start to fade away
Look in the mirror what can I do
Wash me over
Desperate for your love
Oh no

All I do
Another day
All I do
Get down and pray

Easy to forget but not right now
Would you give me mercy and renew
Oh, it's real
Know you're real
So who am I to say that you're not real

Just another day
All I do
Another day
Get down and pray
