

I'm undefeated in the colosseum
I got stains, no stain on me
But it's clear I been slaying
For years, I been saying
We here
It's not a game
Heart cold, but this fire sears in my veins
I'm in too deep and you're too close for envy
Envious of my diamonds, I'm rich B
Shout out Rich B, we do everything richly
Roll the dice twice, we do everything risky

Friends or enemies
I been living through some wild times, got ways to see
Praying on somebody's downfall, man I hate to be ya
Talk to me, look me in the face
Say what's the reason, can't put me in a box
I got no plans to stop, I just do it by myself
And you can if you want to watch, smile on my face
See the king in my mirror
If I get hungry I'll eat you for dinner

You already know who's gonna win
You already lost, I'm up for the win, yeah
You already know who's gonna win
You already lost, I'm up for the win, yeah
You already know who's gonna win
You already lost, I'm up for the win, yeah
You already know who's gonna win
I'm undefeated, I'm fearless, fearless
Yeah
I'm undefeated, I'm fearless, fearless

You know what they say about the kitchen
But don't nobody ever wanna listen
Standing in my way, I'm on a mission
Inferno come get it
Why you wanna play up in the kitchen
I take out the trash and do the dishes
Standing in my way, I'm on a mission
Inferno come get it

You already know who's gonna win
You already lost, I'm up for the win, yeah
You already know who's gonna win
You already lost, I'm up for the win, yeah
You already know who's gonna win
You already lost, I'm up for the win, yeah
You already know who's gonna win
I'm undefeated, I'm fearless, fearless
Yeah
I'm undefeated, I'm fearless, fearless
