

Burning of Rome

Guardians of Time

Slowly it starts to decay
Softly the borders vanish
Enemies batters the gates
Life is seeping out
Gently the fires spread destroying our home
Slowly we witness the falling of Rome
Fire as the flames burning bright
Fire, bringing day from the night
Fire, as we see, as we witness
Behold the burning of Rome
Watching the greatness decline
Seeing the forums crumble
Perceiving the innocent slaughtered
Dies out and ceases to exist
Gently the city dies and fades into none
Slowly we witness the falling of Rome
Fire as the flames burning bright
Fire, bringing day from the night
Fire, as we see, as we witness
Behold the burning of Rome
