

I, Sinner

Guardians of Time

Call from angels. Hear the roar. I can't grasp what it's all for.

Laying siege on my mind. Exaltation of my mind.
I have plunged into a well. Give them all a private hell.
Effectuate my crime.

And that's the story of my life. And I will not repent.
Follow where her wind blows.

I am the sinner but I'm alive.
Answer the call through the fabric of time
I am the sinner but I'm alive.
Answer the call through the fabric of time

Now she tells me to collect. Give me words I can't neglect.
I live in a twilight. I live between these worlds.
She's keeping me alive in my quest to revive the family of light

And that's the story of my life. And I will not repent.
Follow where her wind blows.
