Her ex boyfriend words cut deep
At young tiller in the cut yeah

At your head upper cut with it yeah
I'm still on the motherfuckin' come up
But y'all already know where I'm from yeah
Straight from the 502 hey,
Southside dirty our crew hey
Now they watch all my moves hey

Everything little thing that I do and say My old bitch said she need closure
I just think she wanna get closer
I just think she want some exposure
Tell people how crazy I drove her
Tell people all the dreams I sold her
I sorry you cannot lean on my shoulder
I already got too many burdens
Most of them give to my attorney
I got too many niggas in my face now
This ain't the time nor place now
This for my niggas that stay down
Fuck all you niggas wanna hate now
