

Awake Man

Guided by Voices

I want to be wide awake
You take me everywhere
I want to be like a priest
With all the cool things they wear

Or change in design
For the coming
Super man
With his angel
Woman radar

Here comes the queen
She can scream
To blast you anywhere
Oh

I want to be wide awake man
And be everyone
Oh

I want to be wide awake
You take me everywhere
I want to be wide awake
You take me everywhere
